

MOMENTS IN HISTORY

1891

Pharmacy was one of the first four areas of study approved by the WSU Board of Regents in 1891.

The two-year program was established as part of the chemistry program.

1896

Pharmacy classes were held in “old” College Hall.

1899

Two women were among the six students in the second pharmacy graduating class.

1909

The college moved to the “new” College Hall.

1912

The College of Pharmacy became accredited.

Jessie L. Sims became the first African American to graduate from WSU.

She graduated from the pharmacy program.

1913

Tuition began at $10 per semester.

1921

The college's first Master of Science in pharmacy was awarded to Haakon Bang.

He later served as dean to the college from 1952-1960.

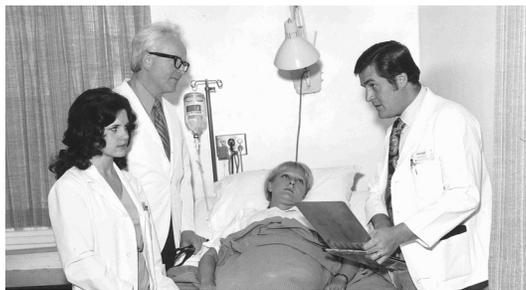

1931

The pharmacy degree changed to a four-year program.

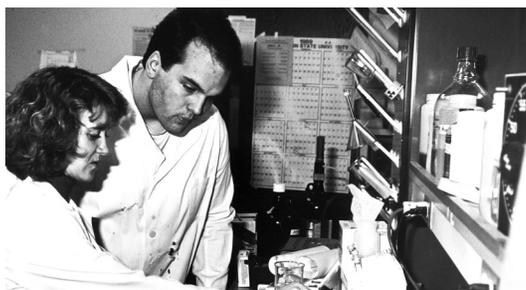

1932

1955

The college began a partnership with Pullman Memorial Hospital for students to get practical experience.

1957

The pharmacy degree became a five-year program.

1961

The School of Pharmacy became the College of Pharmacy.

1970

A new clinical pharmacy pilot program for students was started with Spokane hospitals under the direction of R. Keith Campbell.

1970

The Drug Information Center was established.

1979

The Allen I. White lectureship was established.

Dr. Allen I. White served on the pharmacy faculty for 39 years and was Dean of the college from 1960 to 1979.

1979

Legislation allowed pharmacists to prescribe under protocol signed by a collaborating physician.

1981

The college moved to Wegner Hall.

1982

The Pharmacology/Toxicology Ph.D. and M.S. degree program was authorized by the WSU Board of Regents with management centered in the College of Pharmacy.

1991

The "Outstanding Alumni" award was established.

R. Keith Campbell was the first recipient.

1999

The first class of all Pharm.D. students.

2013

The college was consolidated to one campus at WSU Health Sciences Spokane.

2013

Dedication of the Pharmaceutical and Biomedical Sciences Building, the college's new headquarters in Spokane.

2015

The college extended its Doctor of Pharmacy program to the Pacific Northwest University of Health Sciences campus in Yakima, Washington

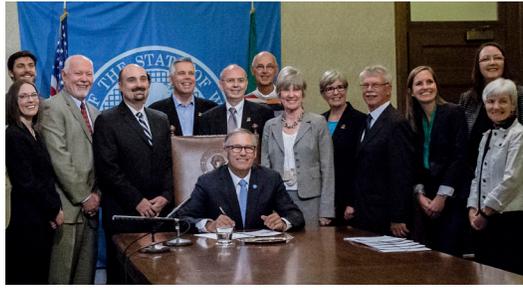

2015

First cohort of Pharm.D. students start on the Pacific Northwest University of Health Sciences campus in Yakima, Washington.

2015

A new law, sponsored by Senator Linda Parlette (a WSU alumna), requires health insurance carriers to recognize pharmacists in the same way as other providers such as physicians, nurse practitioners, and physician assistants.

2015

The WSU College of Pharmacy (COP) and Carson College of Business (CCB) established a joint degree program.

2016

The WSU 125 statue stood in our lobby for the entire year displaying pharmacy and health sciences memorabilia.

2017

The college is ranked 31 out of 96 ranked pharmacy programs in the country.

The College of Pharmacy became the College of Pharmacy and Pharmaceutical Sciences.

2018

College of

Pharmacy and Pharmaceutical Sciences

WASHINGTON STATE UNIVERSITY