

WASHINGTON STATE UNIVERSITY College of Pharmacy and Pharmaceutical Sciences

2023 Impact Report

Commitment to Student Success

$350,000 in student scholarship support

100% incoming PharmD students received a scholarship

47% 2023 graduates employed in Washington went on to work in rural or medically underserved areas

---

Degrees Offered

- » Doctor of Philosophy (PhD) in Pharmaceutical Sciences and Molecular Medicine
- » Doctor of Pharmacy (PharmD) + 7 dual degrees and specialized tracks
- » Bachelor of Science in Pharmaceutical and Medical Sciences
*COMING FALL 2024***

Research Excellence and Innovation

Top one-third of pharmacy schools in the nation for grant funding

$1,413,000

average total NIH grant
each faculty receives

$50 million

grant funding in the last 6 years

69%

Principal Investigators awarded federal grants

Inclusive and Collaborative Environment

Doctor of Pharmacy Students

78% Washington state residents

22% Out-of-state or international

Our Rural Health Initiative (RHI) is the only program on the West Coast dedicated to addressing the rural health care gap, locally and nationally.

1 in 3
first-generation
college graduate

1 in 5
from a small town
or rural areas

Graduate Students

100% first-generation PhD students

100% PhD and Master of Science students employed post-graduation

**data collected from class of 2021, 2022, and 2023*

● 65% female PhD students

● 35% male PhD students

**According to Zippia.com, the gender ratio for pharmaceutical scientists stands at 63% male and 37% female.*

Leadership, Service and Community Engagement

Associate Professor Kim McKeirnan authored the pharmacy technician training which has been adopted by the American Pharmacists Association (APhA). The training is the gold standard used across the nation and currently being adopted in various countries abroad.

120,000+ pharmacy technicians trained in immunizations

1,479 vaccines administered by students in the 2022-2023 academic year

Strong Community and Cougar Spirit

5,658 alumni strong

---

Thriving across 33 countries, 49 states, and 2 US territories

---

1 in 5 student pharmacists mentored by college alumni

WHO WE ARE

“Accessibility to a career in health care not only transforms individual lives, but also strengthens the overall well-being and resilience of our society.”

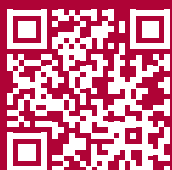

Dean Mark Leid

Mission

To improve health in our community through excellence in collaborative research, scholarship, and clinical education, and to develop outstanding health care professionals and scientists.

Vision

To be a leader in advancing, promoting, and protecting human health.

Learn more and support our mission!
bit.ly/impactreport2023

@WSUPharmacy
f @ in d t

509-368-6700

pharmacy.gocougs@wsu.edu

412 E. Spokane Falls Blvd
Spokane, WA 99202-2131